

Assoc Prof. Ivana Nedeljković, MD, PhD FESC

Cardiologist, Specialist in internal medicine, National expert in Sport Cardiology

Present Position:

- Associate Professor, Internal Medicine Department, School of Medicine, Belgrade University
- President, Serbian Association of Sports Cardiology
- Chief of Laboratory for Cardiopulmonary Exercise Testing, Cardiology Clinic, Clinical Center of Serbia

Scientific Field of Expertise: Cardiovascular imaging, Cardiopulmonary exercise testing, Stress echocardiography

EXPERIENCE:

- Assistant Prof, Internal Medicine, School of Medicine, Belgrade University, 2000-2010
- Associate Prof, Internal Medicine, School of Medicine, Belgrade University, ongoing

QUALIFICATIONS

- Medical Doctor (Faculty of Medicine, University of Belgrade), 1992
- Internal Medicine Specialist (Faculty of Medicine, University of Belgrade), 1997
- M.Sc. in Cardiology (Faculty of Medicine, University of Belgrade), 1999
- European Cardiologist Diploma, 2003.
- PhD in Cardiology (Faculty of Medicine, University of Belgrade), 2009
- Subspecialist, Cardiology, 2011
- Training at the Institute San Donato Milanese, Milan, Italy
- Training at the Institute for Rehabilitation Salvatore Maugeri, Veruno, Italy
- Educational program of the European Association of Cardiologists "Stress Echocardiography in Myocardial Ischemia
- Educational program of the European Association of Cardiologists - Pericarditis;
- Education on Echocardiographic techniques and clinical applications
- XIV European Practicum on Exercise Testing, Bucharest 2010.

MEMBERSHIP

- Fellow- European Society of Cardiology
- Past President of WG on Cardiovascular Imaging of Serbian Society of Cardiology