

Prof. James Bilzon MD, PhD

Professor of Human and Applied Physiology
University of Bath, UK

- Professor, Department for Health
- Centre for Regenerative Medicine
- Institute for Policy Research (IPR)
- Centre for the Analysis of Motion, Entertainment Research & Applications

Current research projects

- Exercise and Cardiometabolic Disease following Spinal Cord Injury
- Exercise and Cardiometabolic Disease following Lower Limb Amputation
- Exercise for Prevention and Management of Osteoarthritis
- Exercise Rehabilitation and Assistive Healthcare Technology
- Physical Activity Measurement in Clinical Populations

Professional Societies

- Honorary Civilian Consultant Advisor (HCCA) in Sport & Exercise Science to the British Army
- Fellow of the Society of Sport & Exercise Medicine Malaysia (FSSEMM)
- British Association of Sport & Exercise Sciences Accredited Exercise Physiologist
- Member of the Nutrition Society
- Member of the Royal Physiological Society
- Member of the Society of Anti-Aging, Aesthetic & Regenerative Medicine Malaysia

Education/Academic qualification

- Doctor of Philosophy, Loughborough University
- Master of Science, Loughborough University
- Bachelor of Science, Manchester Metropolitan University